22. (Morgan, Dale L.). Santa Fe and the Far West. Los Angeles: Printed for Glen Dawson, 1949. 26pp. Sextodecimo [15.5 cm] Brown cloth with gilt stamped title on the backstrip Near fine.

This small item is a reprint of a letter in the 'Niles National Register'. This work contains a note by Morgan. This edition was limited to 200 copies. Scarce. Saunders 23.
$100.00

23. Morgan, Dale L. Utah. Salt Lake City, UT: Red Butte Press, University of Utah., 1987. 1/75. Folio [39 cm] Sewn handmade case paper, containing sagebrush from Utah. The hue of the wrappers is that of fresh sagebrush. Fine. Prospectus laid in. This edition was limited to seventy-five copies, this is copy number sixty-eight.

Woodcuts by Royden Card. A beautiful production from Red Butte Press. Contains five charming woodcuts from Royden Card, one of Utah's most prominent printmakers. "The state is immense and varied, almost beyond belief... Utah is many things at once: Utah is green-carpeted vales lying peacefully under the shadow of the Wasatch; Utah is a wide solitude of rolling dry valleys, with hills marching beyond hills to blue horizons; Utah is unearthly white desert; Utah is tall snow-covered mountains; Utah is blue lakes; Utah is canyon and plateau wonderfully fragrant with pines." - Dale L. Morgan.

30. Pritchard, James A. (edited by Dale L. Morgan). The Overland Diary of James A. Pritchard from Kentucky to California in 1849- With a biography of Captain James A. Pritchard. Denver: Fred A. Rosenstock / The Old West Publishing Company, 1959. First edition. 221pp. Quarto [27 cm] Red cloth with the title gilt on the backstrip. Very good/Near fine.

The Biography of Captain James A. Pritchard is by Hugh Pritchard Williamson. With map in the rear pocket. With an introduction, bibliography, and a chart of travel by all known diarists west across South Pass in 1849 and illustrated with a portrait, and two unpublished maps of 1849 drawn by J. Goldsborough Bruff.

"This work is perhaps the finest example of Morgan's powerful capacity for editing. His attention to detail is manifest throughout the copious notes, but is best shown by the table at the conclusion comparing the travel schedules of every known diarist on the South Pass route in 1849." - Saunders 31

$100.00

31. Roehm, Marjorie Catlin (Dale L. Morgan). The Letters of George Catlin and His Family: A Chronicle of the American West. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1966. $25.00

34. Utah Writers' Project [Morgan, Dale]. Origins of Utah Place Names. Salt Lake City, UT: Utah State Dep't Publication of Instruction, March, 1940. Third edition. 47pp. Quarto [28 cm] Rebound in contemporary red cloth with title gilt stamped on front board and in black marker on the backstrip. Mimeographed work that only has content on rectos of sheets. Very good. Extremities rubbed (more so at bumped corners) 'Utah We Love Thee' by Evan Stephens, bound in at rear.

This is a WPA compilation but released under different auspices than most of its publications. The first issue of the third edition was quickly distributed and another printing was done in November of 1941. Morgan is acknowledged in the introduction as the editor of the Historical Records Survey and presumably he did much in editing this compilation. His contribution, if any, to the two previous editions is unknown. Saunders 4.

35. Baughman, Robert [Dale L. Morgan]. Kansas in Maps. Topeka, KS: The Kansas State Historical Society, 1961. First edition. 104pp. Folio [36.5 cm] Tan cloth with title on the front board. Near fine/Near fine.

Though the book is listed under the authorship of Baughman it is certain that Morgan was responsible for most or all of this work or substantial editing. A typewritten draft of the manuscript in his style and with his editing resides in the Morgan papers at the Bancroft Library. It is unquestionably of his creation. He does at least appear at the head of the list of acknowledgments. Saunders 35.
