1. Nikolavitch, Alex; Gervasio; Carlos Aon; Lara Lee; Blue Lotus Prod. H. P. Lovecraft: He Who Wrote in the Darkness. New York; London: Pegasus Books, September 2018. First edition. 109pp. Quarto [28.5cm]; illustrated paper boards. [54451] $26

“For all readers and admirers of this genius of supernatural fiction, the hauntingly strange and surprising story of the life of H. P. Lovecraft, vividly presented in graphic novel form for the very first time.

Creator of the myth of Cthulhu, Arkham, and the sinister Necronomicon, Howard Phillips Lovecraft became known, after his death, as one of the most influential writers

Lovecraft had an unusual childhood marked by tragedy. His traveling salesman father developed a mental disorder and, in 1893, became a patient at the Butler Hospital in Providence, Rhode Island, and there he remained until his death.

A sickly child, Lovecraft became an avid reader. He loved the works of Edgar Allan Poe and developed a special interest in astronomy. As a teenager, he suffered a nervous breakdown and became a reclusive figure, choosing to stay up late studying and reading and writing and then sleeping late into the day. During this time, he managed to start publishing short stories, his inimitable form of horror fiction.

As mythical as one of his own creations, his innumerable readers see him as having been a rather strange figure from another world. Who really was this recluse from Providence?”

-- from the publisher.

2. King, Stephen. Pet Sematary. New York: Doubleday, 1983. First edition. 373pp. Octavo [24 cm] Black cloth over boards, with gilt stamping on the spine and boards. The spine and boards are just a bit bumped and rubbed at the edges, and there is a mild lean to the spine. In the first state dust jacket ($15.95 price intact), with periodic shallow tears and chips to the edges, and roughly a dozen small indented marks in the surface of the front panel. [54580] $75

Stephen King's 14th novel. "Pet Sematary" was adapted into a film in 1989, and is on the cusp of being released as a film again in 2019.

3. Addams, Chas (Charles). Creature Comforts. New York: Simon and Schuster, 1981. First edition. ISBN: 0671438352. Quarto [28.5 cm] 1/4 bright orange cloth with bright green paper covered boards and gilt stamped titles. Orange pastedowns and illustrated free endpapers. The spine ends and corners of the covers are gently bumped. In a dust jacket with a 1" closed tear along the top edge of the front panel, near the spine. [38284] $25

Charles Addams became world famous for his "New Yorker" cartoons. He received the Humor Award from Yale, an honorary doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a special award from the Mystery Writers of America.

4. Addams, Charles. Homebodies. New York: Simon and Schuster, 1954. Fifth printing. SIGNED. 90pp. Quarto [28 cm] 1/4 rose colored cloth with black paper covered boards. Illustrated free endpapers. Each pastedown has a large area of adhered paper and a former owner's name in pen. The text block is cracked multiple times. In a dust jacket with periodic shallow open and closed tears backed with tape. The spine area is subtly moisture stained (more prominently on the reverse). [17837] $125

"What wool of bat is to witches' brew, what the deadly nightshade is to the vegetable kingdom, Charles Addams is to the connoisseur of humor." - from the publisher. This copy is signed by Addams on the second page.

5. Cornwell, Patricia Daniels. Postmortem. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1990. First edition. 293pp. Octavo [21.5 cm] 1/4 black cloth with red paper over boards, and a silver stamped title on the spine. With a light 3 1/2' scratch along the bottom edge of the front board, a small impression in the surface of the front board, and a tiny stain on the front free endsheet. In the dust jacket illustrated by Winslow Pinney Pels, with rubbing to the surface, toning to the inside flaps, and a couple of minor chips in the top edge. [49921] $150

The author's first novel, and the first Dr. Kay Scarpetta novel.

6. Vassos, John. Phobia. New York: Covici Friede Publishers, 1931. First edition, limited. 106pp. Quarto [31 cm] Black cloth with decorative silver stamping on the front board and backstrip. The backstrip is sunned, the spine ends are slightly frayed, and the underlying boards are peeking through at the corners. The endpapers have a previous owner's bookplate and a bookseller's ticket and price label. [45296] $750

Number 404 of 1500. Signed by Vassos on the limitation page. "Phobia" is Vassos' most personal work, an examination of twenty-four of the numerous and varied fears that plague humankind. Each "phobia" included is fantastically illustrated and described expertly by Vassos.

8. Romero, George; Susanna Sparrow. Martin. New York: Stein & Day, Publishers, 1977. First edition. 213pp. Octavo [21 cm] 1/2 black cloth over red boards. Title gilt on backstrip. The text block is cracked at the title page, and again at p. 141. The endpapers are subtly darkened along the hinges. The dust jacket is heavily rubbed in areas, obscuring a bit of the title on the jacket's spine. The jacket also has some staining to the reverse. [48398] $100

9. [Charles Manson]; Dr. Paul Dawson. Masks of Charles Manson: My Interviews with the American Icon of Evil. Vistar Pictures Ltd., 2014. Reprint. 421pp. Quarto [28 cm] Pictorial wraps. Illustrated. Minor soiling to the top edge of the text block. [43249] $75

From the rear cover- "Dr. Dawson reveals Manson's darkest secrets, elicits Manson 'family' confessions, confronts and provokes the murderer by probing his mind, and challenging Manson's spooky justifications. Manson, an enigma, finally answers about his cryptic crimes he's suppressed for many years. Some nonfiction-novel techniques help bring dry facts to life. Psychological concepts are introduced to illuminate persuasive, lucid light on Manson's ghastly crimes of assault, torture and mass murder."
